

I support satellite radio and their effort to offer important information . How about listening to the public instead of doing things to be re-elected. Satellite raadio is the best thing to happen to media since TV. If you vote to hurt satellite radio, God won't forget when you need points to get into heaven. How about doing what is right!